

Tipu[#]hü.kh, a big posut of mountain that runs down on north side of Rogue River across river from Rocky point. Molly & others came to this place and there was an unoccupied log cabin there, and Americans told Molly she & the others to stay there, & they stayed there one year. It was a little upriver of Tipu[#]hü.kh, when I ask where Ti Coimikh was from this cabin, says Ti Coimikh was a little upriver of the cabin.
There was a flour mill at Tipu[#]Chü.kh later on, but it had not been built there yet when Molly lived at the cabin one year.
